

Measuring the density in recycled water

NUCLETRONICS' probe TYPE IGI 241 is able to measure the density in the recycled water with a very great accuracy.

The measurement takes place through the piece of plastic tube which transports the recycled water to the scales of the concrete mixer.

It is possible to measure on tube dimensions from 1½" to 3" plastic tubes.

NUCLETRONICS ApS

Klintevej 526 • Magleby, DK 4791 Borre

Tel: +45 55812074 Fax: +45 55812274 E-mail: hub@nucle.dk Web: nucle.dk